DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

The claims are objected to as the form of claims 1-6 is improper. Where a claim sets forth a plurality of elements or steps, as in the instant claims, each element or step should be separated by a line indentation. See MPEP 608.01(m) and 37 CFR 1.75(i).

Further, the claim language "trough" (claim 3, ln. 3 and claim 7, ln. 2) should read "through".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 3-4, 6-7 and 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 5 and 8 recite the limitation "the curving path" (ln. 2). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims.

Claims 3 and 7 recite the limitation "the discharge end" (ln. 2). There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3653

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 5 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rapley (US '850).

Rapley teaches an arrangement (Fig. 1) comprising an incoming conveyor (7) and a downwardly moving conveyor (5) with projecting carriers (4), wherein a curved guide space defined by guide rails (8,9) faces the incoming conveyor and curves downwards. Hereinafter, Applicant is respectfully reminded that claim language consisting of functional language and/or intended use phrasing is given little, if any, patentable weight as the apparatus must merely be capable of functioning, or being used, as claimed. See MPEP 2112.02, 2114. Here, the guide rails are regarded as capable of turning a timber piece downwards, the carriers are regarded as capable of inclining obliquely downwards during their operation and of forming a tangent with the curving path of the guide space.

Claims 1-2 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fowler, Jr. ("Fowler") (US '764).

Fowler teaches an arrangement (Fig. 1) comprising an incoming conveyor (12, 14) and a downwardly moving conveyor (16) with projecting carriers (near 16), wherein a curved guide space defined by guide rails (Fig. 1) faces the incoming conveyor and curves downwards. Here, the guide rails are regarded as capable of turning a timber piece downwards and the carriers are regarded as capable of inclining obliquely downwards and of forming a tangent with the curving path of the guide space during their operation.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3, 4, 6, 7 and 9-11, pending resolution of the issues raised above, are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
